

Through the Eyes of Animals

Dear High School Students,

The English Studies Students' Association at the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin is pleased to announce the 1st edition of our competition for all aspiring writers! We invite you to participate in our animal (auto)biography writing competition "Through the Eyes of Animals".

We are looking for creative and original (auto)biographies of a non-human animal of your choice. We are reaching out to creative-minded, animal-loving students through this competition with the hope of encouraging a more animal-focused approach to all living beings.

The deadline for submissions is 12th November (World Animal Enrichment Day). Submissions must be in English, and must be no longer than 3,000 words.

The writing competition is open to all high school students and the top three entries will receive prizes and a certificate of achievement. Additionally, the winning entries will be published on our website.

To submit your entry, please send it as a Word or PDF document to katelo@kul.pl with the subject "your surname, TEA". please include the following:

- your first name and surname;
- your email address, phone number, name of your school
- contact details of your English teacher: name and surname, email address.
- signed RODO documents

   May the paws be with you!
